LAW OF MARYLAND.

THE subscriber, printer to the State, takes leave to inform all persons who wish to have a copy of the laws of Maryland, from Bacon's abridgement up to the end of the last session of assembly, with the resolutions of the several conventions, the proceedings of the convention that framed the constitution, the declaration of rights and form of government, and the articles of confederation, that, by order of the general assembly, he shall begin to work in a few months under the direction of Alexander C. Hanson and Samuel Chase, Esquires; and as he intends to strike but a few copies more, and as what are ordered for the public use, or engaged by individuals, has sent subscription papers to the clerks of the several counties, and a number of other gentlemen in each county, for the purpose of collecting the names of those persons desirous of having a copy of this useful and necessary work, he will be printed with a new letter, on a good paper, of the same size, and nearly on the same plan, with Bacon's, to be delivered (at a particular time in each county) bound in leather, at three shillings each copy. Having requested a return of the subscriptions by the middle of August, he hopes those who mean to subscribe will do it before that time, or they will lose the opportunity of purchasing a valuable book.

FREDERICK GREEN.

Annapolis, May, 1785.

April 12, 1785.
THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has settled on the banks of the Monongahela river, at the mouth of the Big Red Stone creek, about one mile below the Red Stone old mill, where he has erected a saw and merchant mill. Any gentlemen inclining to move to or visit the new country, may be furnished on the spot with boats, flour, Indian corn, whiskey, hay, or any other matters convenient for their voyage, on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms.

CHAMPION ON COMMERCE,

To be sold at the Printing-Office.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, May 22, 1785.
ON Monday the 15th of July next, Nanticoke Manor, in Dorchester county, will be disposed of at public sale, for current money, or any specie certificates issued by this state, payable the first day of January 1790, with interest annually. Bond with two approved securities to be given.
This Manor contains several thousands of acres, and will be sold in convenient lots for farming. It includes the town of Vienna, which will be laid off anew, and sold in single lots.

CLEMENT HOLLYDAY,
GABRIEL DUVALL.

Anne-Arundel county, May 20, 1785.
Will be offered for sale, on Monday the 27th day of June next, if fair, if not the next fair day,

THE subscriber's valuable plantation, containing three hundred and twenty five acres, lying within three miles of Herring-bay, and five of Lower Marlborough, the soil is remarkably good for tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, oats, &c. at this time there are about fifteen acres of excellent tobacco ground lying before the door, which produces as large tobacco as grows in the settlement; this land has a great quantity of meadow ground, about twenty acres cleared, the greater part in cultivation, a sufficiency of rail timber to support the land for many years to come; the improvements are, a new dwelling house twenty four by twenty-eight, a cellar the bigness of the house, a hall, two rooms, and a passage below, completely finished, and four above, a new kitchen, and paved garden built this spring, a milk house, quarter, corn house, tobacco house, overseers house, &c. two good apple orchards and other fruit of different kinds. Two years credit will be given from the day of sale, on paying one third of the purchase money in October next. Possession may be had the first day of November, when a deed will be given to the purchaser, by

GILBERT HAMILTON SMITH.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers intend to prefer a petition to the next general assembly, for a law to sell the land the property of James Cathell, son of James, late of Worcester county, to pay his just debts.

JOHN NELLUM,
DIXON TODVINE,
RANDLE SMULING,
NATHANIEL SMULING.

George town, Patowmack River, May 2, 1785.

HEREAS Charles Beatty and George F. Hawkins did, in the years 1766 and 1770, by way of lottery, dispose of 300 tickets for lots in the Addition to George-town, which said lottery was drawn on or about the first day of February 1770, and the said Hawkins has since conveyed all his right of said lots and rents to the said Charles Beatty, and said Beatty has been and is affected with all the lots in said addition, which did not appear by records to be legally conveyed; Notice is hereby given to the possessors of the tickets where no legal conveyances have been given, to apply for their deeds, and pay the assessments and annual rents within six months from the date hereof, otherwise application will be made by the subscriber to have the said lots sold at public sale, in order to pay the assessments and rents.

CHARLES BEATTY.

Annapolis, April 14, 1785.

TO BE SOLD,

TWO likely young healthy strong negro men, one about twenty-five, the other about twenty-three years of age, and have each had the small-pox; the
